

ACE Open Doors-CALD Adults Learning Computer and English Skills for Work - Year 2024

Are you from culturally and linguistically diverse background?

Want to learn basic English and computer skills for the

Wondering whether you will enjoy being a carer or a tutor?

Want to check out what it is like working in hospitality, retail or office

Kumon Education Centre

SAWs

stepping stone

The "OPEN DOORS" job-ready program is for you!

We provide you with training on basic English and computer skills for the workplace. You will also get hands on experience via voluntary unpaid job placements at a workplace. Places are limited. Please call 0422 737 751 to register or for more information

Date: Every Wednesday from 7th February 2024 to 3rd July 2024
Time: English Class: 10:30am – 12:30pm, Computer Class: 1:00pm -3:00pm
Location: Gungahlin Library
Cost: Free (conditions apply)

This project is welcomed female and male participants
For more information, please call 0422 737 751 or text 0481 966 422 or email info@sawfriendship.org.au

Support Asian Women's Friendship Association Inc. (SAWs)

亞洲婦女聯誼協會

Empowering Women from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) Background

Adult Community Education JobTrainer grants program is a jointly funded initiative of the ACT and Australian Governments